CAMPAIGN CLOSED AT KANSAS CITY

Betting Is Even on the Result of To-Day's Election-Mayor Reed's Campaign.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Kansas City, April 7.-Kansas City votes to-morrow for a complete set of city officers, with the exception of one-half the members of the upper house of the Common Council, seven in number. Of these seven holdovers six are Democrats; the seventh, whose term expired three months ago by death, was, too, a Democrat. James A. Reed, the present Mayor, is a candidate for re-election against John J. Green, a North of Ireland Irishman, who is a deacon in a Protestant church and suffering for both reasons. The indications to-day warrant the rival city chairman claim-ing victory to-morrow. The betting in the poolrooms is even. Under normal conditions Mayor Reed might expect defeat, the 4,000 negro votes here being hard to overcome, all the more so in light of the fact that the Republicans so in light of the fact that the Republicans have the funds wherewith to hold the vote together. Mayor Reed has, however, crossed the Republican line on an anticorporation plank. He has been accorded tremendous audiences throughout the thirty-day campaign. Unable to find halls large enough to meet the requirements, the expedient of hiring a tent was resorted to. One was found capable of holding 2,500 people—the same tent in which Dockery was nominated here two years ago. This has been carried through the fourteen wards nightly for the past three weeks, and only one night, a damp cold night, was it too big for the undertaking.

night, a damp cold night, was it too big for the undertaking.

Reed's splendid record is expected to gain for him 2,000 Republican votes. The preface to almost every Republican campaign speech at the outset was "Reed is an honest man. We concede that, but"—and then the orators would set in to qualify. The Democrats saw the force of the admission, took it up, and from that minute on Reed commenced to grow.

The registered vote of Kansas City is 43,000. The indications are balloting will be heavy.

maintaining my integrity. I must decline to comply with your demand. To-day Governor Davis sent a letter to ex-Governor Eagle, as president of the Baptist State Association, in which the Governor tenders his resignation as vice president of the Baptist State Association. Governor Davis's expressed reason for this step is that he feels that those high in authority in the denomination have taken no occasion to deny what he terms vile slanders against him. He adds that fearing that his retention of the office of vice president might in some way reflect upon the cause of the Eaptist denomination in Arkansas, and feeling that the people of the State have just fully exonerated him from these charges, he tenders his resignation.

CHINESE EXCLUSION BILL PASSES HOUSE

Drastic Amendments Adopted, One Prohibiting Chinese Sailors on American Ships.

NATIONAL BANK BILL PASSED.

Extends Charters Twenty Years-Democrats Taken By Surprise -Conference Report on War Revenue Bill Adopted.

Washington, April 7.-- The House to-day passed the Chinese exclusion bill, after incorporating in it several amendments which increased the drastic character of the measure. The principal one not only excludes Chinese by birth and descent, but all Chinese of mixed blood.

The chief struggle was over an amendment made by Mr. Clark of Missouri to prohibit the employment of Chinese sailors n American ships. An amendment coverng this proposition was at first ruled out on a point of order, but subsequently was modified to evade the ruling and was adopt-

As passed, the bill practically re-enacts all the existing exclusion laws and incor-porates with them the existing treaty regulations. It extends these exclusion laws to the Philippines and the other possessions of the United States, and forbids Chinese laborers in our colonial possessions coming into this country.

The Philippine Commission, by the terms of the bill, is directed to adopt proper measures for the enforcement of the provisions of the bill in the Philippines. The conference report on the war revenue tax repeal bill was adopted, and the bill went to the White House. Democrats Taken by Supprise. Mr. Richardson, the Democratic member of the House conferces, explained why he of the House contectes, explained why he declined to sign the report. He said the Dimocrats did not believe that all the war revenue taxes should be repealed, and taxes on the necessaries of life remain. For instance, he said he favored the Senate amendment, which would have allowed the tax on bucketshops to remain, but which the conferent dispressed to.

which the conferees disagreed to Mr. Payne, in reply, said he had opposed a Senate amendment, because he did not be-lieve in taxing the small gamblers and allowing the big ones to go scot free. "Re-sides," said he, "we promised the people that we would remove every vestige of the war taxes, and we want to keep our Late in the afternoon Mr. Fowler of New Late in the afternoon Mr. Fowler of New Jersey moved to pass, under suspension of the rules, the Senate bill to extend the charters of national banks for twenty years. The Democrats were taken competely by surprise. As it was after the usual hour for adjournment, the attendance was slim. The Democrats attempted to filibuster, but a call of the House fit ally secured a quorum and the bill was pessed.

Tax on Bucketshops Stricken Out.

Washington, April 7.—Considerable time was consumed by the Senate to-day in a discussion of the conference report on the bill to reduce war revenue taxes. As passed by the Senate, the tax on transactions in so-called bucketshops was retained. The conference struck out that provision, it being explained that the House would not consent to its retention. Mr. Berry of Arkunsas, Mr. Bacon of Georgia, and Mr. Pettus of Alabama insisted that the Senate should demand the retention of the tax. Mr. Adrich of Rhode Island. Mr. Allison of Iowa, and Mr. Spooner of Wisconsin, while they were in favor of the tax. explained that it could not be retained without endangering the entire measure. The conference report finally was adopted—35 to 29.

Mr. Simmons of North Carolina explained briefly why he should support the Chinese exclusion bill, although he frankly said he would do so with some reluctance. The exclusion bill was read for committee amendment, the reading occupying considerable time.

KIDNEY TROUBLE, LAME BACK AND RHEUMATISM

CURED BY SWAMP-ROOT.

To Prove What the Great Kidney Remedy, Swamp-Root, Will Do for YOU, Every Reader of The Republic May Have a Sample Bottle Sent Free by Mail,

DR. KILMER & CO. Binghandon, N. V.;

Gentlemen—it gives me great pleasure to dd my testimonial to that of hundreds of others regarding the wonderful curative properties of Swame-ione. I had a lame back three years ago, before leaving North Dakota for the coast soon after my arrival in the Puget Sound country it became very much worse. I felt ceruin that the coast climate had given me acute rheamatism, and came to the conclusion that I could not live in this climate. Later, I became convinced that what I really had was kidney trouble, and that the rheamatism was due to by kidney trouble. The leaveness in my back increased rapidly, and I had other symptoms, which indicated that I would soon be prostrated unless I obtained relief quickly. Nothing your offer of a sample bottle of Swamp-Root free, I had a friend write for one, and began thing It immediately. Within three weeks the lameness in my back bedan to disappear. Furing that fall and winter I took three one-dollar bottles of Swamp-Root, with the result that I became completely cured. I no longer have pains in my back and can exercise violently without feeling any bad effects. I have recommended Swamp-Root to several of my acquaintances who were similarly affected, and, without exception, they have been greatly benefited by its use.

Yours very truly. DR. KILMER & CO., Blughamfon, N. Y.;

GRANDER THAN CHICAGO FAIR. Secretary Cox of Government Board Promises Such an Exhibit.

W. V. Cox, secretary of the Government Board for the World's Fair, and Seymour Tuiloch of Washington, D. C., stopped in St. Louis yesterday on their way from Mexico to Washington. They visited the site in company with Director of Exhibits Skift and Professor Holmes, Acting Chief of the Department of Mines and Metallurgy. They were pleased with the location of the Government building.

Speaking of the Government Board, Mr. Cox said that it would give St. Louis a much grander exhibit than it did Chicago in 1882. Some of the members of the board had served on similar boards for many years, and the new members have had a great deal of experience in their respective lines. Both Mr. Cox and Mr. Tulloch say that everywhere in Mexico they found posters of the Exposition. "The first thing we saw in El Paso, after crossing the Rio Grande," said Mr. Cox, "was a big sign advertising the D. R. Francis Hotel at El Paso."
